

COLLISION

CIP CODE 47.0603

Mr. Weinell

REPAIR TECHNOLOGY

... experience the latest industry trends in automotive repairs and painting.

CERTIFICATIONS

- SP2 Autobody Safety Certification
- SP2 Pollution Prevention Certification
- AC Delco Battery Starting and Charging Certification
- Valvoline Motor Oil Certification
- DeVilbiss Automotive Refinishing 6H Certification

3-YEAR BREAKDOWN

Year 1

- Shop and lab safety
- Equipment safety
- Vehicle construction
- Welding
- Metal fabrication
- Measuring
- Metal repair
- Primer and paint basics

Year 2

- Safety
- DeVilbiss Automotive Refinishing 6H Certification
- Detailing interior and exterior of a vehicle
- Steering and suspension
- Glass replacement
- Body filler and minor dent repair
- Plastic repair
- Replacing bolted and welded-on panels
- Surface preparation
- Mixing and reducing paint

Year 3

- Safety
- SP2 safety certification
- Refinishing tools and equipment
- Refinishing operation
- Spray techniques
- Estimating
- Restraint systems
- Electrical systems
- Frame repair
- Live work projects

Mr. Weinell's career in the collision repair industry has given him the opportunity to work in many local dealerships. He's been an instructor at EWCTC for 5+ years.

"Consistency is the key."

CAREER PATHWAYS

- Business Owner
- Collision Shop Manager
- Automotive Refinishing-Technician
- Collision Repair Technician
- Automotive Design Engineer
- Custom Painter / Fabricator

COLLEGE PATHWAYS

AUTOMOTIVE

The median salary for Collision Repair Technicians is $41,970 in the US and the number of openings in PA is projected to increase by 9% between 2016 and 2026.

INDUSTRY PARTNERS

- The Collision Shoppe, by Jason Mignogna
- Latrobe Chevrolet
- Smail Auto Group
- Sendell Motors
- Town and Country Motors